

ACCESS Service

Support for adults living in Birmingham who are going through new or life-changing conditions

B·I·D SERVICES

About ACCESS

ACCESS is a service designed to help adults living in Birmingham with a hearing loss. We can provide access to information enabling people to make informed choices, adapt to their changing lifestyle and maintain their health and independence for as long as possible.

Our Services

Through our ACCESS Service, we can provide a comprehensive range of information and advice, training courses and emotional support to help people navigate their way through new or life-changing conditions. We can support anyone over the age of 18, their family, friends and carers.

Here are just some of the ways we can help:

- Support completing benefits or welfare applications
- Access to online workshops, training and wellbeing sessions
- Providing self-help fact sheets and leaflets
- Introductions and referrals to specialist networks
- How to contact Adult Social Care
- Applying for or renewing a blue badge
- Applying for a bus pass
- Facilitate social care input or intervention
- Support to help you live independently
- Supporting grant applications to help with the cost of adapting your home
- How to access Occupational Therapy
